

Virginia Voice

“Virginia Voice is one of the greatest blessings in my life. I look forward to it every day. I don’t want anybody to feel sorry for me, and the Voice keeps me up on current things.”

“Virginia Voice has been the best thing that’s happened to me. It has opened up a new world for me.”

“With the Virginia Voice, I’ve regained some of the independence that I hold so dear.”

“Virginia Voice is a wonderful friend. It’s wonderful to know that someone cares enough to get us out of our corners and keep us informed.”

Virginia Voice...

Eyes for those who cannot see

Hands for those who cannot turn pages

WHO RECEIVES THIS SERVICE?

Anyone with a vision impairment or other condition limiting their ability to read.

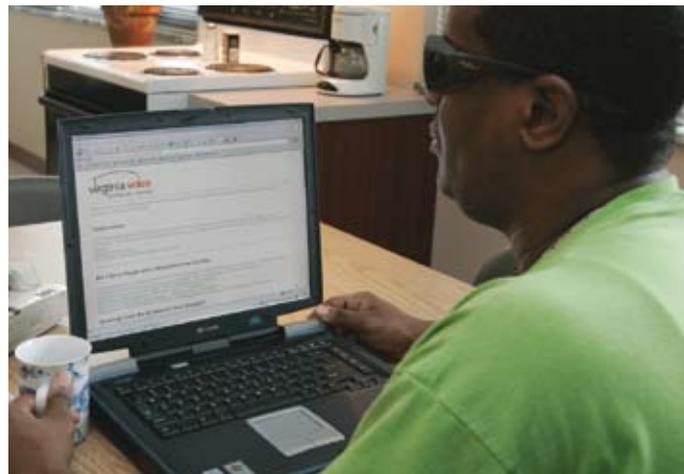

Our listeners include those with cerebral palsy, Parkinson's disease, macular degeneration, reading disabilities resulting from strokes or other trauma, and learning disabilities like dyslexia.

HOW DO YOU GO ABOUT GETTING THIS SERVICE?

It's easy. Virginia Voice has a brief application that is accessible on our Web site – www.virginiavoice.org. Or you can call 804-266-2477 and have an application mailed or faxed. Once we receive your application, we will deliver a radio to you. It's a simple, easy-to-use radio that picks up only Virginia Voice programs.

Listen on demand or download our programming at www.virginiavoice.org.

CONNECTING PEOPLE TO THEIR COMMUNITY

Eliminate isolation in your life or that of someone you care about. Let us open up a world of information and entertainment for you. We provide a special radio at no charge that allows people with vision impairments and other disabilities to listen each week to the reading of more than 140 publications:

- Richmond Times-Dispatch (including obituaries and grocery ads)
- Style Weekly
- Reader's Digest
- Consumer Reports
- Interviews with community organizations
- New York Times
- Smithsonian
- People
- Forbes
- Dramatic productions
- Much, much more...

"You are like friends as you come into my home over the radio waves each day."

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

- Spread the word! Tell your friends, neighbors, fellow church members, and co-workers about Virginia Voice. Many who could use our service are unaware of its availability.
- Invite Virginia Voice to make a presentation. A representative of Virginia Voice will be happy to speak at a meeting of your club, your church, your business, or other organization.
- Include Virginia Voice in your charitable giving. Virginia Voice is a nonprofit organization supported by tax-deductible contributions.
- Volunteer with the Voice. We depend on a large number of volunteers for reading and for delivering radios.
